Powder Mountain: An Exclusive Summer Getaway
Untouched Mountain Escape: Powder Mountain

Hi xx,

Are you looking to cover any last-minute summer getaways? If so, I'd like to offer up Powder Mountain in the Wasatch Mountains of Utah for consideration.

Located one hour north of Salt Lake City (that serves 95 non-stop flight destinations), Powder Mountain is an unforgettable year-round mountain escape for outdoor enthusiasts.

An ideal destination for outdoor recreation and health and wellness, travelers can expect to cool off at 9,000 ft. — even on the hottest days of the year, Powder Mountain remains a cool 60-70 degrees. The resort's wide variety of warm-weather activities include hiking and mountain biking on 30+ miles of trails with unprecedented scenery, and a beautiful alpine lake sits at the base of the mountain that's perfect for windsurfing and wakeboarding.

While other mountain towns are experiencing overtourism, Powder Mountain never gets crowded due to its cap on lift tickets — no matter the season — making your trip feel more like an exclusive getaway.
